

Module 3: Build a Basic Layout

I completed the Build a Basic Layout training. In this module, I learned how to create a basic Android user interface using Jetpack Compose. I followed the provided examples and wrote Kotlin code to create and arrange UI elements. I also ran the application to see how the code affected the appearance of the interface. I took screenshots of my completed work as evidence of the exercises I completed.