

Module 2: Setup Android Studio

I completed the Setup Android Studio training. I followed the instructions to prepare Android Studio for Android development. I learned about the Android Studio development environment and how an Android project is organised. I also practiced creating and running an Android project. This allowed me to become more familiar with the tools that are used to develop and test Android applications.